Night Expedition to Test Vigilance of Harbor Forts.

FOREIGN SHIPS REPULSED

Imaginary Foreign Fleet Composed of United States Vessels Try To Get Into New York's Inner Harbor But Were Discovered by Powerful Searchlights.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The coast artillery at Fort Wadsworth, and Fort Hamilton, which guard the narrows, were more or less on the qui vive last night. Word reached them that, theoretically, a fleet of foreign warships had been sighted in the lower bay and that an attempt would be made by the vessels to steal into the harbor at dead of night and attack the city. All this means that the War Department is affording the forts a new experience testing the vigilance and activity of the garrisons. The so-called foreign fleet is really a detachment of torpedo planters and dispatch boats under command of Captain G. T. Patterson of the coast artillery. He is instructed to try to creep up past the forts and enter the inner harbor at any time up to Thursday. While the men in the range towers in the forts were playing searchlights upon the water about 8:30 last night three of the attacking boats were discovered attempting to steal on the narrows at a distance of about a thousand yards from Fort Hamilton. As soon as the lights were turned on them they retreated.

The forts are manned by about 400 regulars ordinarily, but the War Department reckoned this force would be inadequate for the test and therefore companies of the 17th and 13th regiments, national guard of New York were sent to the forts on Saturday to remain until after the attack.

GOULD IN CHARGE.

Millionaire Directs His Own Defense In Separation Suit.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Howard Gould has decided not to go abroad this year. Instead, he will remain in New York, for the legal battle with his wife, formerly Miss Katherine Clemmons, who is suing him for separation and alimony, which she wants fixed at $250,000 a year.

This is the first summer Gould will have spent in New York since a youth. Always he went to Northern European waters or sought the cool breezes of the Switzerland mountains.

Mr. Gould has been taking an active part in the legal fight ever since it began a month ago. There have been but few days when he has not visited the office of his lawyer, DeLaney Nicoll. Every move from the Howard Gould side of the controversy is made only after Mr. Gould has sanctioned it.

"I am becoming a good lawyer, he said last week to one of his friends. The shape of the legal battle between the Goulds just now which is interesting the husband most is the amount of alimony he will be obliged to pay. He and his attorneys are preparing a statement of his wealth knowing this will be determined by the court or the referee should one be appointed after the motion by Mrs. Gould's attorney for alimony and attorney's fees.

Mr. Gould has announced that his annual income is about $600,000 from a fortune of $12,000,000. Mrs. Gould says that she can prove that her husband owns properties which bring his income up to more than $1,000,000. Upon this basis Mrs. Gould has decided to ask the court to allow her $250,000 a year alimony. Cases will be cited by Mrs. Gould's attorneys, in which courts have allowed a wife one-fourth of her husband's income.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

Austria Hungary Will Follow Germany's Lead at the Hague.

VIENNA, June 10.—The attitude of Austria Hungary at the coming conference will be substantially similar to that of Germany, her ally in the triple alliance. On the proposition for limiting armaments it is learned from an authoritative source that, following the example of Germany and Russia, there will be no participation whatever in any discussion of the subject, Austria-Hungary remaining silent and reserving complete freedom of action with reference to what may be done. According to the opinion held in government circles here the position of Italy which was at one time in doubt, is not likely to be different from her allies in the triple alliance.

Concerning the arbitration question Austria Hungary will follow her previous course in opposing compulsory arbitration. All endeavors aiming at the humanization of the conduct of war are sure to receive the hearty support of Austria-Hungary.
The Austro-Hungarian delegates, as far as can be learned at present are not likely to make any special motions at the conference, for on the contrary,

GUATEMALAN FRONTIER.

MEXICO CITY, June 11.—Conditions on the Guatemalan frontier were accurately depicted today by one who has just arrived from that section and who is Mexico's agent for the various Central American Republics. This agent, who for political reasons desires that his name be not used, declared that the people on both sides of the line are greatly excited and that only a word from President Diaz would be necessary to cause an army of 10,000 to attempt to march on the Guatemalan capital. He said that hundreds of Guatemalans were daily crossing the line and coming into Mexico territory. These people he avers relate pitiable and horrible stories of oppression.

As to the Guatemalan forces now on the border, he declared that not more than 2,000 were visible, but that within a day's march of the frontier 8,000 troops were distributed.
Traffic on the border is at a standstill and business conditions are chaotic. The Mexican forces are daily being augmented. Work is being rushed on the Panama railway and the road is now operating trains to Huxtle, 75 miles from the border.

MURDER SO COMMON.

LONDON, June 10.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Telegraph says that the internal condition of Russia is growing more serious. Murder is common; pillage has become a means of livelihood, and incendiarism is but an expression of the peasants' dissatisfaction with the landowners. Statistics show that during the week ending Saturday, 158 persons suffered. Eighty were killed and seventy-eight wounded. In some of the provinces organized share of attention from Chicago women eliers and many acts of incendiarism are reported.
